CSI Partners With RCGILTNER Services, Inc. to Provide Integrated Online Lending Platforms

PADUCAH, Ky., July 10, 2017 – In order to help its customers tap into the burgeoning online lending market, Computer Services, Inc. (CSI) (OTCQX: CSVI), a provider of end-to-end financial technology solutions, has partnered with RCGILTNER Services, Inc., to offer online lending solutions for both personal and small-business loans with near real-time approval.

Through RCGILTNER's MinuteLender® and Business MinuteLender®, CSI customers can integrate online lending platforms into their existing Internet banking services; this integrated experience gives their customers access to unsecured loan options that can be completed in minutes and fully eSigned on a mobile device or computer, at times most convenient for them. Both MinuteLender and Business MinuteLender utilize the bank's own underwriting and risk-rating standards, and the platform allows for near-instant approval on all online requests. Also, banks retain all of the loans on their balance sheet as working assets.

These online lending tools can be easily integrated into a bank's existing online banking services, enabling the bank to present a cohesive, consistent brand experience.

"In today's lending environment, banks are always searching for ways to increase revenue across all of their product lines, particularly in obtaining more loan business," said Steve Powless, CSI's board chairman and chief executive officer. "Our partnership with RCGILTNER provides our customers with relevant solutions that can increase loan volume by offering the online tools consumers expect in today's digital banking experience and meeting borrowers at the time of interest."
